

Dietary Assistant

Wildwood Lifestyle Center is looking for a Dietary Assistant to provide support by preparing meals and special orders for the Diet Kitchen.

General Requirement

- Member of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, in good and regular standing.
- Has an understanding of the medical missionary work and desires to advance that work through their time, talents, and example.
- Agrees to live by God's principles in all areas of the Christian life (health, dress, entertainment, etc.) as taught in the Principle classes at the Wildwood Institute.
- Agrees to support the mission of the institution and to abide by its policies and guidelines as stipulated in the Institution's Policy Handbook.

Education & Qualifications:

- Completion of a Health educator course

Skills/Experience:

- Must be friendly, polite, and a team player
- Able to follow basic instructions and follow through with them
- Reliable, dependable, neat, clean, and well groomed
- One to three years cooking experience is preferred, however, on the job training is available when possible. Must be well versed in kitchen work, even if not professionally

Job Responsibilities:

- Prepare dishes according to recipes/instructions
- Prepare special dietary orders according to guests' needs
- Maintain the kitchen in high degree of cleanliness and organization (wash dishes, sweep, mop, etc)
- Follow protocols for food storage in cooler and freezer and other inspection requirements
- Operate any electrical or steam equipment pertaining to his/her work

Physical Demands:

- Able to walk, bend, stoop constantly which is required throughout the shift

Extras When Requested

There are many departments that work together to provide the services that are offered at the Wildwood Lifestyle Center. When needed, workers may be asked to help out in another department (housekeeping, switchboard, transportation, etc.)